WELCOME TO THE ROUNDHOUSE

From modest Victorian beginnings, as a steam-engine repair shed, to legendary cultural venue, the Roundhouse has an enviable heritage. Following an extensive refurbishment, in June 2006 we reopened the doors of our Grade II* listed building. Since then, more than half a million people have been to music, theatre, dance and circus events, and around 15,000 13–25 year olds have developed their creative talents in our studios.

We've got an eclectic mix of work coming up over the next few months — from exhilarating circus and an exciting collaboration with Sadler's Wells, to pioneering electronica and a three-day festival when the next generation of artists will take over the Roundhouse.

We look forward to seeing you soon.

JOAQUÍN CORTÉS UNLEASHED ROUNDHOUSE EXCLUSIVE

For two nights only, Joaquín Cortés is back in London with a stripped-down show exclusively for the Roundhouse. He'll perform with a band of 13 singers and musicians playing contemporary flamenco on flute, violin, drums and bass, and traditional flamenco guitar.

From early beginnings with the National Ballet of Spain, he went on to form his own flamenco ballet company in 1992 and seduce audiences at sell-out shows around the world. More recently he's choreographed for Jennifer Lopez, danced with Alicia Keyes at the Grammys and performed at the Oscars.

This is your chance to see Cortés bolder, wilder and braver than ever — and with a few surprise guests — before he sets out on a world tour.

IN YOUR ROOMS/ UPRISING: THE CHOREOGRAPHER'S CUT

Billed as one of the UK's hottest young choreographers, Hofesh Shechter presents two of his physical and highly acclaimed dance works, In Your Rooms and Uprising, which for the first time will be performed with live music.

Accompanied by 20 musicians, with music composed and performed by Shechter himself and 17 dancers, In Your Rooms is a wild ride of raw dance talent and sublime choreographic vision. This dance milestone is performed alongside the edgy energy and propulsive drive to Shechter's all-male 2006 triumph, Uprising.

Presented on tiered stages within the Roundhouse's magnificent Main Space, this is an opportunity to see an explosive performance from one of Britain's most exciting artists.

TABÚ

Award-winning circus troupe, NoFit State, return from a sell-out European tour of Tabú to the home of contemporary circus in London.

For their latest exhilarating spectacle, director Firenza Giudi takes NoFit State's troupe of home grown and international performers and creates a roller coaster ride of orchestrated chaos. To a backdrop of live music and video, the 12-strong ensemble swarm and slice above, around and amongst the audience for 90 minutes of turbo-charged mayhem.

There are no ringside seats. This is a promenade performance of eccentric solos, clowning and high-wire thrills, where the action's so close you'll be able to feel the skin, the heat and the breath of the performers.

In association with City Circ, London's new season of theatre and contemporary circus.

CREATIVE PROJECTS

THE STUDIOS

Alongside all the great artists who perform in the Roundhouse, we also provide opportunities for anyone aged 13–25 to enjoy and develop your creativity. The Roundhouse Studios is a collection of dedicated built spaces exclusively for young people, containing high quality facilities such as TV, radio and music production studios, new media suites and rehearsal rooms for music and performance. This allows you the chance to take part in a huge range of creative activities and learn skills that you wouldn't normally get chance to.

The combination of weekly term time and special holiday projects, plus a lively schedule of showcases, masterclasses and special events, means there's something for everyone. And admission costs for projects are kept low — usually just £2 a session.

MAKE THE MOST OF IT

Also as a member you can use all the facilities independently. So if your band needs somewhere to rehearse, you can hire a room for just £1 an hour — and we can provide any equipment you may need such as drums, mics, amps, or decks for DJs. Plus there are computer suites with all the latest software such as Cubase, ProTools and Reason and even a recording studio. This is just a small selection of what's on offer and all for just £10 a year.
